Dear Mr. Dulles, -

Naturally I was very sorry to have your letter of April 25 indicating that you will not be able to attend our meeting in Boston on June 30.

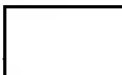

I am much pleased that you can send Mr. Kirkpatrick for I know he will represent you adequately and well. We are delighted to have him but sorry that circumstances prevent your being with us yourself. I can assure you that this arrangement is satisfactory with us, and that we will be much pleased to have Mr. Kirkpatrick with us.

Sincerely,

Fred H. Turner
